GOODWILL BUSINESS SERVICES

For all the right reasons.
It’s more than a job to us. It’s a responsibility we share as a team. When you choose Goodwill Business Services, you’re choosing our procedures, our standards and our experience. But most important, you’re choosing our people.

People who appreciate and value the opportunity they’ve been given. You’ll see it. In their commitment. And in the quality of their work.
We leave nothing to chance. Our training procedures are designed to achieve one goal. Which is to give our employees the information, knowledge and confidence they need to be successful.

But we don’t stop there. We also conduct weekly evaluations for every customer relationship. It’s a system that generates results. For us. And for you.
Let’s assume for a moment that all things are equal. The quality of our work. The service we provide. The commitment we make. We are qualified to earn your business. So why choose Goodwill Business Services?

For good.

We help people. We help them build independence. And help transform the quality of their lives. That’s the tie breaker. When you choose Goodwill Business Services, you’re choosing the power of good, which translates to the power of work.
We understand the importance and the sensitivity of providing unarmed security services in today's world. In fact, our security training exceeds the State of Ohio mandate to secure Level 5 facilities – the highest security level demanded by the state. In addition, all Goodwill Columbus officers are licensed and approved by the Ohio Department of Homeland Security to work as security officers in the State of Ohio.

We currently secure more than 6 million square feet of space in Columbus. We have the capability and capacity to provide security for buildings of every size and configuration. We’re experts in every major alarm and access system. It’s expertise gained from more than 25 years of experience.

At Goodwill Columbus, we have embraced our role as a key provider of custodial services to companies and organizations throughout central Ohio. In fact, we’ve put the systems in place to ensure our services meet and exceed the standards and requirements of every customer.

It begins with a customized contract that meets your needs. Our leadership team will ensure that you receive consistent, high quality services. We have a rigorous screening process that fosters consistency, quality and low turnover. To carry out the work, Goodwill employs people who pass stringent background checks. If you’re the person responsible for your company’s relationship with a custodial services provider, you know reliability is an ongoing issue. We take steps to make it a non-issue. And that not only makes us unique in the industry, it’s also a key reason why we clean 5 million square feet of space.

We know this is serious business.

There’s pride in our performance.
