HARMONY PROJECT

HARMONY PROJECT

In music, harmony does not exist with only one note. The same is true in community. Harmony's work has always been about more than one voice, one definition, one need, or one purpose. Our programs impact hundreds of people every week, including students, men and women who are incarcerated, and adults living in isolation and supportive programming, by engaging them with their peers through music, art, and service to our community.

ABILITY ARTS PROGRAM

In 2010, Harmony Project began its first outreach Ability Arts Program serving adults who had experienced homelessness. As the program grew, volunteers from Harmony's larger chorus began to sing alongside the participants and the program expanded to include adults with disabilities. Partnerships with day service providers and residential care providers throughout Central Ohio have resulted in a chorus of 150 individuals from all walks of life who have sung for seniors at nursing facilities, for audiences at the Schottenstein Center, and on stages throughout Central Ohio. Current community partners include Goodwill Columbus, National Church Residences, ARC Industries, Open Door Columbus, ViaQuest, and IBA Support Services. For information on joining, email Director Peggy Meckling-Baker at peg@harmonyproject.com or call 614-564-9300.

GUEST ARTISTS

GEORGE BARRIE

@NeallyoStarchildVevo

George Barrie's upbeat blend of groovy rock n' roll is inspired by bluesy songwriters across genres and generations. George first picked up his dad's red Duo-Sonic Fender guitar at age 11 and has since built a music career as a musician, songwriter and producer in Columbus, Ohio. The George Barrie Band debuted in 2016 with the full length album 'Keep Dreaming' followed by Boomerang in 2019, along with a music video for the song 'Maybe'.

LT HUMPHRIES/ NEALLYO STARCHILD

@NeallyoStarchildVevo

LT Humphries, better known by his stage name Neallyo Starchild, began his musical journey at home and in church and all throughout school and college (central state university). Singing from a young age alongside his family in congregations across the community, he developed a soulful, heartfelt approach to performance. A multi-instrumentalist with a curiosity for new sounds, Neallyo is always ready to learn and expand his musical palette. He draws inspiration from life. Things that happen to others and himself. In his free time Neallyo enjoys traveling and time in nature. Gentle, encouraging, and ever-joyful, Neallyo aims to put a smile on every face and offer positive encouragement through his music.

MICHELLE HERMAN, DANCER

<https://michelleherman.com>

Michelle Herman is a novelist, memoirist, essayist, Slate advice columnist, soon-to-be grandmother, Harmony Projector, and happily retired English professor who was a founder and longtime director of the graduate program in creative writing and the graduate interdisciplinary program in the arts at OSU. She took her first ballet class at Flux Flow at age 62, and over the nine years since, she's taken a class or two nearly every day. She's been performing with Flux Flow since the community's first contemporary performance in 2018.

TAWNY SIT, DANCER

<https://ccapp.osu.edu/people/sit.6>

Tawny Sit is a PhD student in astronomy at Ohio State. After retiring from elite rhythmic gymnastics, in high school Tawny danced and performed with a local Chinese community center, and in college performed and choreographed with the dance team and ballet clubs. Since 2022, when they moved to Columbus for grad school, Tawny has been taking class and performing with Flux Flow.
